Suddenly, he saw a rooster up on the roof of the house. After seeing the rooster, the fox started drooling and building castles in the air. He thought of eating the rooster. The fox made a plan to bring the rooster onto the ground and then it would eat him up.

The fox pretended to be the rooster's friend "Oh my friend rooster! I am seeing you after a very long time. You seem to have lost some weight and have become very weak. Come down and let me count your pulse and see what is wrong," said the cunning fox. "You are my dear fox! I am feeling very exhausted and weak. I can't even come down from the rooftop," replied the clever rooster. The fox realized that the rooster was too clever for him. The rooster started laughing.
