A Treasure Trove of Shakespearean Delights

This comprehensive edition encompasses the full range of Shakespeare's literary genius, including:

- 37 plays, from beloved comedies like A Midsummer Night's Dream to gripping tragedies like Hamlet
- 154 sonnets, exploring themes of love, beauty, and timelessness
- Narrative poems, such as Venus and Adonis and The Rape of Lucrece

Inline Footnotes: Unlocking Shakespeare's Language

Oakshot's edition is distinguished by its innovative use of inline footnotes, providing immediate clarification and context for Shakespeare's often challenging language. These notes:

- Define archaic words and phrases
- Explain historical and cultural references
- Provide literary and dramatic analysis

With these annotations, readers can effortlessly navigate Shakespeare's complex texts, gaining a deeper understanding and appreciation of his literary artistry.

Extensive Annotations: A Scholarly Guide

Beyond the inline footnotes, Oakshot's edition features extensive annotations that provide a comprehensive scholarly resource. These annotations:

- Offer historical and biographical background
- Analyze literary themes and techniques
- Provide critical commentary and interpretations

With these annotations, readers can immerse themselves in the world of Shakespeare's plays and poetry, gaining insights from leading scholars and critics.

Modernized Text: Shakespeare for Today's Readers

While preserving the integrity of Shakespeare's original language, Oakshot's edition has been carefully modernized to enhance readability for contemporary readers. The modernized text:

- Employs modern spelling and punctuation
- Clarifies sentence structure
- Makes the text more accessible to a wider audience

This modernization allows readers to enjoy Shakespeare's works without the barriers of archaic language, making them relevant and engaging for modern readers.

A Valuable Resource for Students, Scholars, and Shakespeare Enthusiasts

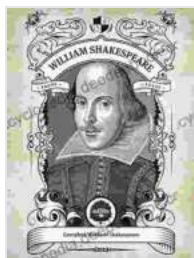

Oakshot's Complete Works of William Shakespeare is an indispensable resource for students, scholars, and anyone with a passion for Shakespeare. Its comprehensive annotations and modernized text make it:

- An invaluable tool for studying Shakespeare at all levels
- A rich source for literary analysis and research
