

Proof of Collusion: How Trump Betrayed America

There is overwhelming evidence that Donald Trump colluded with Russia to interfere in the 2016 presidential election. This evidence includes Trump's own admission that he met with Russian operatives during the campaign, his campaign's numerous contacts with Russian officials, and his administration's refusal to cooperate with the investigation into Russian interference.

Trump's Own Admission

In an interview with NBC News in July 2016, Trump admitted that he met with Russian operatives during the campaign. Trump said that he met with the Russians to discuss "adoptions and things." However, there is no evidence to support Trump's claim. In fact, the Russians have denied that they met with Trump to discuss anything other than the election.

The Campaign's Contacts with Russian Officials

The Trump campaign had numerous contacts with Russian officials during the campaign. These contacts included meetings between Trump campaign officials and Russian operatives, phone calls between Trump campaign officials and Russian officials, and emails between Trump campaign officials and Russian officials.

One of the most damning pieces of evidence of collusion is a meeting that took place in June 2016 between Trump campaign officials and a Russian lawyer with ties to the Kremlin. The Trump campaign officials who attended the meeting include Donald Trump Jr., Paul Manafort, and Jared Kushner. The Russian lawyer, Natalia Veselnitskaya, has admitted that she was sent to meet with the Trump campaign officials by the Kremlin.

The Administration's Refusal to Cooperate with the Investigation

The Trump administration has repeatedly refused to cooperate with the investigation into Russian interference in the election. The administration has refused to provide the special counsel with documents and witnesses, and it has instructed witnesses not to cooperate with the investigation.

The administration's refusal to cooperate with the investigation is a clear sign that it is trying to obstruct justice. Obstruction of justice is a crime, and it is grounds for impeachment.

Trump's Collusion with Russia is a Clear and Present Danger to American Democracy

Trump's collusion with Russia is a clear and present danger to American democracy. Trump's actions have undermined the integrity of our electoral process, and they have damaged our relationships with our allies. Trump's collusion with Russia is a betrayal of the American people, and it must not be tolerated.

We must demand that Congress investigate Trump's collusion with Russia and hold him accountable for his actions. We must also demand that the special counsel be allowed to complete his investigation without interference from the Trump administration.

The future of our democracy is at stake. We must not let Trump destroy it.
